Our Annual January Sale of Undermuslins

Starts Tomorrow with Vast Assortments of New, Dainty Undergarments at Prices That Provide Helpful Economies and Urge the Buying of Supplies for Immediate and Future Needs

This annual event, carefully planned months in advance, brings to the women of Washington an opportunity to supply their needs to best advantage. Considering the present cotton quotations, the increased costs of production, the demand for merchandise—it is quite an achievement to collect such varieties of Whitewear at the prices offered in the January Sale. The important point about this January Sale is that the stocks are the same high standard and come from the same makers whose underwear always found in our undermuslin department the year round. Savings abound on every side, and the scope of this important event may be seen in the splendid varieties and fine qualities represented.
